KING OF SWINDLERS CLEANED UP MILLIONS

VICTIMS LURED BY SMOOTH TALK TO INVEST IN OIL

SOME DELUDED PEOPLE INVESTED THOUSANDS. THEIR ENTIRE FORTUNES

ANONYMOUS NOTE RECEIVED BY POLICE SAID ARCH-SWINDLER HIDDEN IN CHICAGO

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 18.—Leo Koretz, "king of swindlers," cleared $20,000,000 through the sale of stocks in the Bayano River Trust of Panama, investigators announced today as they widened their search for the fugitive.

New evidence coming in daily to the states attorney's office from many cities throughout the country has raised the estimate of Koretz' swindle from $5,000,000 to approximately four times that amount.

His victims include hundreds of persons in New York, Denver, Colorado Springs and other cities from coast to coast.

Convinced that Koretz is no longer in the United States despite the fact that they are unable to trace the course of his flight, authorities have asked District Attorney Banton of New York to question Mrs. Mary Schoener of New York to whom Koretz is said to have confessed he was "going away for a long long time." They believe Koretz may have told Mrs. Schoener the destination of his flight.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Salo Auerbach, wife of a wealthy Chicago theatre owner, who was sought as an important witness in connection with Koretz' disappearance, came voluntarily to the states attorney's office and told what she knew of the swindler's deals.

"My husband and I invested more than $30,000 in Mr. Koretz' oil business," Mrs. Auerbach declared.

"We have—like all the others—lost every penny."

"I do not know where he is. I have not heard from him since he left. There is no reason why I should know."

Mrs. Auerbach, according to States Attorney Robert E. Crowe was named by several witnesses in connection with a "love nest" supported by the missing "oil magnate". Attorneys for the woman allowed her to testify providing she would not be asked regarding the alleged "love nest".

A salesman identified Mrs. Auerbach as one of two women who selected furniture for one of Koretz's love nests, the states attorney said.

Mae Raymon, a telephone operator forged another link to the Auerbach-Koretz chain, officials said by identifying Mrs. Auerbach as the woman whom Koretz often called on at the north side hotel.

Mrs. Auerbach and her friend Mrs. Joseph Schwartz lived for a time at the hotel, the operator said. Koretz, she said, used the name of Al Bronson and held long conversations with both women.

Mrs. Schwartz, Miss Raymond said would leave the hotel about 1 p. m. returning about 3 p. m.

Mrs. Auerbach then would leave the hotel, returning about 6 p. m. the time when Koretz is said to have ended his daily role as "Al Bronson".

States attorneys are waiting results of the question of Mrs. Schoening of New York. A letter torn to bits and found on Koretz' desk linked Mrs. Schoening and her sister Mrs. Jimmie Fraser of Atlantic City with the investigation. Koretz, according to the letter was deeply interested in Mrs. Fraser. A pen note from Mrs. Schoening implored Koretz to communicate with "Al" later identified as Mrs. Fraser because she was sick and hurt because Koretz had not written.

The old axiom of "find the woman" was injected into the investigation when Mrs. Auerbach is said to have declared:

"I was not the only woman in his life, why pick on me?"

LIBERAL PARTY NOW HOLDS BALANCE OF POWER IN ENGLAND

(By United Press)
London, Dec. 18.—Holding the balance of power in parliament, leaders of the liberal party held a caucus at the national liberal club to decide upon party policies.

Both labor and the conservatives are making strong indirect bids for liberal support.

Former Premier H. H. Asquith and David Lloyd George were among the speakers and the former stood for a definite rejection of any plans, informal or otherwise, with the conservatives for the purpose of "keeping labor out."

The view taken is that it would not be fair play and would be unconstitutional for the liberals to do such a thing. Asquith also is convinced that the liberals can turn out labor or the conservatives, either one, whenever necessary. The Rothermere press is conducting an active campaign urging Asquith to support the conservatives and prevent a labor movement.

CLAIM RYAN IS MURDERER TOO

BANK BANDIT TAKEN IN MILL CITY MAY HANG FROM TOWER OF LONDON

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Dec. 18.—Norman Ryan, bank bandit captured in Minneapolis Friday after a gun battle, may hang from the tower of London for the murder of a woman of the streets.

While Ryan was in London on a furlough during the world war he and another soldier brutally beat two women and one of them did not recover, Canadian police declared.

One other murder in England and another in the dominion were credited to him.

Representatives of the Dominion department of justice are here to take Ryan back to Ottawa. He escaped from the Kingston prison in September where he was held for bank robbery. Dominion police declare he can be convicted of at least three murders. In addition he has his unexpired term and fifty lashes coming at Kingston prison.

Information obtained by the Canadian police was that Ryan is believed to have murdered Jack Slade, a steamship oiler in Liverpool. He showed up in Melbourne, Australia in possession of Slade's passport and personal effects. He is also wanted for the murder of a Hamilton, Ontario business man.

Arthur Sullivan, alias Brown, shot and killed by Minneapolis detectives has always been a pal of Ryan's.

grand jury today returned an indictment against Leo Koretz Chicago's "king of swindlers" authorities started a thorough search of the city for the missing oil stock broker on the basis of an anonymous note which declared Koretz was in Chicago.

The letter, which was signed from "one who has faith" stated that Koretz attended church in Chicago on Sunday and was still in the city. It declared that Koretz could liquidate with a normal loss if given an opportunity.

The indictment against Koretz charged him with obtaining $32,500 from Samuel Richmond through a confidence game.

MAGNUS JOHNSON STIRS BALTIMORE IN ROUSING SPEECH

MINNESOTAN SCORES SENATOR BRUCE IN HOME TOWN FOR TURNING TO G. O. P.

IN HEATED MOMENT OF TALK, JOHNSON TAKES OFF COLLAR AND TIE

Baltimore, Dec. 18.—Baltimoreans had their first intimate look at Magnus Johnson, "dirt farmer" and radical member of the United States senate from Minnesota. The opportunity was presented by the senator's maiden speech to the Maryland branch of the farmer-labor party.

Mr. Johnson hastened to assure the throng which filled the auditorium that he had not come merely to be "looked at." He wanted them to hear him, he asserted, and for almost an hour they did nothing else.

Few in the audience were disappointed. The Minnesota senator did most of the things that were expected of him and added a few extras as they occurred to him.

Removes Collar
In a heated moment of his speech he removed his collar and tie and loosened the neck band of his plain white shirt. The tie, a small black bow, was easily detached, for it was one of those practical contrivances which attaches itself to the front collar button by means of a hook.

At this point he reminded his auditors that "out in Minnesota I used to take off my coat and vest, too." Despite an invitation from a member of the audience that he take this liberty here, however, he declined to make further alterations of his raiment.

What Baltimoreans heard from Mr. Johnson was a powerful, reverberating voice which was used to score Senator William Cabell Bruce, along with others of the new senator's colleagues.

Senator Bruce became the target of the Minnesota senator's oratory when the latter discussed the vote of the Maryland senator which prevented the election of a member of his party to head the interstate commerce committee. It was one of the few references made to current congressional matters.

"I haven't had time to say much over there," Mr. Johnson said in leading up to the Bruce discussion. "The fact is it seems to take us a long time to get started. We almost got started the other day, but the senator from Maryland threw the monkey wrench into the machinery."

"I know I am in his home town, but that does not change the fact that he flopped from the democratic to the republican side. I read his statement made in explanation of his stand and noted in particular that part in which he declared that no boat is big enough to hold himself and Mr. LaFollette."

"I want to add something to that. Mr. Bruce may be afraid of the radicals, but if we let greed for the almighty dollar and for power get away with us there is going to be such a reaction that he will have more radicals in the boat than he would like."

Speaking with the choice of words which he said has brought upon him much criticism for its "lack of polish," Senator Johnson outlined the salient features of his faction. He declared neither he nor his followers are radical and that his only aim is to get laws for the "common people."

He asserted that neither republicans nor democrats can find fault with his platform and that "this is what led them to resort to slandering me and challenging my education."

In a summary of his platform, he reiterated his opposition to the world court and the League of Nations. He

SOFT DRINK PARLOR MAY BE PADLOCKED FOR LIQUOR SALES

Duluth, Dec. 18.—The first click of the key in fastening the "padlock law" on Duluth was heard Monday. The "padlock law" is a provision which makes it possible to close for a year any place in which it has been proved that intoxicating liquor has been illegally kept or sold. To close a place, abatement proceedings must be instituted. Recently, S. B. Qvale, state prohibition director, announced the inception of a "padlock law" campaign in a number of Minnesota municipalities, including Duluth.

affirmed his desire, however, for some kind of plan to help Europe.

He denounced five to four decisions in the supreme court and the Cummins-Esch law. Adjusted compensation for soldiers will have his support, he promised, as well as legislation to prevent future wars. Of prohibition he made only casual mention, saying "if the brewers and distillers had been taking better care of themselves they would be in business today."

In conclusion, Mr. Johnson said big business today is "sitting at the table," while the farmers are "seated at the fireside, eating only the crumbs which the business men throw to them."

"As long as I can exert my strength and influence," he declared, "it shall be my purpose to bring the farmers from the fireside and seat them at the table."

14 Papers Are Now In The Auto Show Beauty Contest, Many Entrants

Four additional papers today announced their entrance into the Auto Show Beauty Contest, undertaken to select the 15 most beautiful girls in the Northwest, with the idea of sending the prettiest of the 15 to the Atlantic City Board Walk Beauty contest next summer.

The papers entering the lists today are: The Bemidji Pioneer, the Fairbault News & Republican, the Albert Lea Tribune and the Austin Herald. This brings the total of participating dailies to 14. One more paper will be selected by the show management. Several journals are under consideration and the announcement will be made in a day or two regarding the final selection.

The second week of the contest started with a rush, according to reports received today at Auto Show Beauty Contest headquarters, 709 Andrus Building, Minneapolis. After getting away to a slow start in several of the towns involved, the contest was reported today to be gathering momentum everywhere.

The opportunity to take a trip with chaperone to Atlantic City, all expenses paid, in addition to the preliminary prize of $100 is spurring the women on to greater activity. The rule that in lieu of the trip to Atlantic City the grand prize winner will receive $500 in gold seems to have proven popular.

Exceptional interest is being evinced in the Minneapolis Tribune scramble where the list of entrants passed the hundred mark today. In Rochester, an effort is being made to secure the filing of the girl who was picked by Rudolph Valentino last spring. Whether the Sheik's idea of beauty is the same as the readers of the Rochester Post & Record is causing some little speculation. Although the last town to enter is Austin, the county seat of Mower county has announced that it is going to pick a girl that cannot be denied the grand prize during the Auto Show.

Owing to the length of time the contest will continue, all sorts of upsets may be expected. No girl has any commanding lead today and dark horses may win out before the closing day. Keep your eye on the coupon in today's paper. Don't let it go to waste. It may win a prize for some girl.

Revised List of Contestants
This is the revised list of contestants to date, including five new entries:

McADOO JUMPS INTO RACE FOR THE PRESIDENCY

ACCEPTS SOUTH DAKOTA DISTRICT PLATFORM, FILES FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

OTHER CANDIDATES ARE EXPECTED TO FILE ON MINORITY TICKETS TODAY

(By United Press)
Pierre, S. D., Dec. 18.—William Gibbs McAdoo was formally entered in the presidential race today.

He accepted the South Dakota district platform and filed as a candidate for the democratic nomination for president in the sunshine state primary, March 25th.

McAdoo had no compunction about accepting the South Dakota democratic platform as required by the Richards primary law because it was written largely at his dictation, according to politicians here. His managers had complete control of the convention December 4th.

Although they denied the platform was dictated by him, it was evident from the text that it was a McAdoo platform, and one on which he will make his national race.

"I am willing to fight with and for the people of South Dakota in support of the progressive principles espoused in the convention," McAdoo wired W. W. Howes director. Howes added the McAdoo forces at the convention have won a unanimous endorsement for him.

Other candidates were expected to file on minority tickets today, the last day for filing on the state minority ticket.

The republican minority ticket is virtually closed by the action of the supreme court yesterday in ruling that the five proposal men who put up Howard Johnson for congressman in the second district on the minority republican ticket had the exclusive right to complete that ticket. No other candidate will be allowed to go on it without subscribing to the Fuller platform or without the consent of the proposal men. This is taken to mean that Hiram Johnson cannot file on the minority ticket for the republican nomination but will file as an independent republican before the first of the year—the dead line for independent filings.

Politicians here view the independent column with skepticism believing that an independent ticket could not win in this state. The friends of Hiram Johnson, however, are confident the California senator can carry the state and that the ten delegates to the national convention to be held in Cleveland will be Hiram Johnson supporters.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIQUOR LAWS CAN SUCCEED, DECLARED

St. Paul, Dec. 18.—Enforcement of liquor laws can succeed.

All that is necessary is to keep "plugging on."

This is the word brought to the state law enforcement meeting in the capitol today where 200 officers from all parts of the state are planning to better enforcing the laws particularly the prohibition laws.

Enforcement has been difficult, Mayor Nelson said, because of the question of the will of the majority.

It is the duty of all the officers to enforce the law regardless of their own opinions.

Rigid enforcement he declared will be the best for the nation.

Two things are needed to make the prohibition enforcement legislation fully effective. These he said are:

Divide the state into districts and in each district construct a workhouse so that bootlegger prisoners there can be forced to work during their sentences and not have an easy life doing nothing in a county jail.

Production of additional specific enforcement funds presumably from forfeited bail and fines.

Gun Battle With Mob Kills Man
Duncan, Oklahoma, Dec. 18.—Albert Berch, 45, hotel owner was killed and Robert Hernigan, negro porter, was wounded in a gun battle with a mob last night.

The mob attempted to force Berch to discharge the negro.

Anonymous warnings had been received by Hernigan ordering him to leave town.

GREECE MAY BECOME REPUBLIC THIS WEEK, KING ASKED TO GO

(By United Press)
Athens, Dec. 18.—Greece may become a republic this week. King George has been asked to leave the country by a committee representing the army and navy. From the palace at Tatoi, 20 miles east, the king has denied them.

"I won't leave," he stated. "Whoever dares, let him come here and try to remove me."

But later it was learned that Colonel Plastiras, virtual head of the military government, had accepted an arrangement whereby King George apparently leaves Wednesday at the latest and goes to Constanza aboard the yacht Narcissus.

REPORT THAT KING GEORGE HAS DEPARTED

Paris, Dec. 18.—An Athens dispatch today said that King George of Greece had departed, which was taken to mean that he had started on his journey out of the country.

Other candidates were expected to file on minority tickets today, the last day for filing on the state minority ticket.

The republican minority ticket is virtually closed by the action of the supreme court yesterday in ruling that the five proposal men who put up Howard Johnson for congressman in the second district on the minority republican ticket had the exclusive right to complete that ticket.

No other candidate will be allowed to go on it without subscribing to the Fuller platform or without the consent of the proposal men. Vera Cruz, Dec. 18.—Adolfo De La Huerta's press bureau claimed today that his rebel troops are completing a circle around Mexico City.

Headquarters of General Sanchez reported the capture of Cuayutla less than 50 miles south of the capitol.

Rebels have occupied Tlaxcala 60 miles east of Mexico City and Iguala 80 miles from the capitol. They also claim capturing Santa Lucrecia.

Mexico City, Dec. 18.—(Delayed). The only semblance of success achieved by the rebels in the east front was when they marched into Puebla which was voluntarily evacuated by the federals as part of a pre-arranged plan, according to official advices.

Obregonists are predicting a speedy end to the rebellion once a general attack under the personal direction of the president is launched.

Senate resumes balloting for chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee. Foreign relations committee meets to consider routine business.

House ways and means committee begins considering tax reductions.

Washington, Dec. 18.—A confidential canvass of the senate today showed that more than 30 republicans are agreed to stick by Senator Cummins for the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee—even if it forces the election of a democrat.

Three and possibly four more votes were swung over to the new progressive candidate, Senator Couzens, in overnight conferences. In connection with the renewed strength, the progressives have planned to attempt again in the balloting today to thrust Couzens through.

But the canvass of votes indicate that Couzens is facing an impossible task because three of the administration senators are determined to stick by the senior rule and the action of their party caucus in nominating Couzens.

In Rochester, an effort is being made to secure the filing of the girl who was picked by Rudolph Valentino last spring. Whether the Sheik's idea of beauty is the same as the readers of the Rochester Post & Record is causing some little speculation. Although the last town to enter is Austin, the county seat of Mower county has announced that it is going to pick a girl that cannot be denied the grand prize during the Auto Show.

Owing to the length of time the contest will continue, all sorts of upsets may be expected. No girl has any commanding lead today and dark horses may win out before the closing day. Keep your eye on the coupon in today's paper. Don't let it go to waste. It may win a prize for some girl.

* McADOO JUMPS INTO RACE FOR THE PRESIDENCY *

ACCEPTS SOUTH DAKOTA DISTRICT PLATFORM, FILES FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

OTHER CANDIDATES ARE EXPECTED TO FILE ON MINORITY TICKETS TODAY

(By United Press)
Pierre, S. D., Dec. 18.—William Gibbs McAdoo was formally entered in the presidential race today.

He accepted the South Dakota district platform and filed as a candidate for the democratic nomination for president in the sunshine state primary, March 25th.

McAdoo had no compunction about accepting the South Dakota democratic platform as required by the Richards primary law because it was written largely at his dictation, according to politicians here. His managers had complete control of the convention December 4th.

Although they denied the platform was dictated by him, it was evident from the text that it was a McAdoo platform, and one on which he will make his national race.

"I am willing to fight with and for the people of South Dakota in support of the progressive principles espoused in the convention," McAdoo wired W. W. Howes director. Howes added the McAdoo forces at the con-

* GREECE MAY BECOME REPUBLIC THIS WEEK. KING ASKED TO GO *

(By United Press)
Athens, Dec. 18.—Greece may become a republic this week. King George has been asked to leave the country by a committee representing the army and navy. From the palace at Tatoi, 20 miles east, the king has defied them.

"I won't leave," he stated. "Whoever dares, let him come here and try to remove me."

But later it was learned that Colonel Plastiras, virtual head of the military government, had accepted an arrangement whereby King George apparently leaves Wednesday at the latest and goes to Constanza aboard the yacht Narelsus.

REPORT THAT KING GEORGE HAS DEPARTED

Paris, Dec. 18.—An Athens dispatch today said that King George of Greece had departed, which was taken to mean that he had started on his journey out of the country.

vention have won a unanimous endorsement for him.

Other candidates were expected to file on minority tickets today, the last day for filing on the state minority ticket.

The republican minority ticket is virtually closed by the action of the supreme court yesterday in ruling that the five proposal men who put up Howard Fuller for congressman in the second district on the minority republican ticket had the exclusive right to complete that ticket. No other candidate will be allowed to go on it without subscribing to the Fuller platform or without the consent of the proposal men. This is taken to mean that Hiram Johnson cannot file on the minority ticket for the republican nomination but will file as an independent republican before the first of the year—the dead line for independent filings.

Opponents here view the independent column with skepticism believing that an independent ticket could not win in this state. The friends of Hiram Johnson, however, are confident the California senator can carry the state and that the ten delegates to the national convention to be held in Cleveland will be Hiram Johnson supporters.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIQUOR LAWS CAN SUCCEED, DECLARED

St. Paul, Dec. 18.—Enforcement of liquor laws can succeed.

All that is necessary is to keep "plugging on."

This is the word brought to the state law enforcement meeting in the capitol today where 200 officers from all parts of the state are planning to better enforcing the laws particularly the prohibition laws.

Enforcement has been difficult, Mayor Nelson said, because of the question of the will of the majority. It is the duty of all the officers to enforce the law regardless of their own opinions.

Rigid enforcement he declared will be the best for the nation.

Two things are needed to make the prohibition enforcement legislation fully effective. These he said are:

Divide the state into districts and in each district construct a workhouse so that bootlegger prisoners there can be forced to work during their sentences and not have an easy life doing nothing in a county jail.

Production of additional specific enforcement funds presumably from forfeited bail and fines.

Gun Battle With Mob Kills Man
Duncan, Oklahoma, Dec. 18.—Albert Berch, 45, hotel owner was killed and Robert Hernigan, negro porter, was wounded in a gun battle with a mob last night.

The mob attempted to force Berch to discharge the negro.

Anonymous warnings had been received by Hernigan ordering him to leave town.

SENATOR COUZENS, PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE, GAINS MORE VOTES IN NIGHT

(By United Press)

Congress Today By United Press

Senate resumes balloting for chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee. Foreign relations committee meets to consider routine business.

House ways and means committee begins considering tax reductions.

Washington, Dec. 18.—A confidential canvass of the senate today showed that more than 30 republicans are agreed to stick by Senator Cummins for the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee—even if it forces the election of a democrat.

Three and possibly four more votes were swung over to the new progressive candidate, Senator Couzens, in overnight conferences. In connection with the renewed strength, the progressives have planned to attempt again in the balloting today to thrust Couzens through.

But the canvass of votes indicate that Couzens is facing an impossible task because three of the administration senators are determined to stick by the senior rule and the action of their party caucus in nominating Couzens.

SMITH, S. C. SENATOR MAY BE ELECTED

Washington, Dec. 18.—President Coolidge today was notified by senate administration leaders that Senator Smith, South Carolina democrat would be elected chairman of the interstate commerce committee.

Senator Watson, Indiana, told Mr. Coolidge during a conference at the White House that he expected Smith would be elected today.

Watson predicted the votes of Senators Norris and Howel, Nebraska would break the deadlock.

DE LA HUERTA, REBEL LEADER, HAS HIS OWN PRESS BUREAU

(By United Press)
Vera Cruz, Dec. 18.—Adolfo De La Huerta's press bureau claimed today that his rebel troops are completing a circle around Mexico City.

Headquarters of General Sanchez reported the capture of Cuayutla less than 50 miles south of the capitol.

Rebels have occupied Tlaxcala 60 miles east of Mexico City and Iguala 80 miles from the capitol. They also claim capturing Santa Lucrecia.

PREDICT SPEEDY END OF REBELLION

Mexico City, Dec. 18.—(Delayed). The only semblance of success achieved by the rebels in the east front was when they marched into Puebla which was voluntarily evacuated by the federals as part of a pre-arranged plan, according to official advices.

Obregonists are predicting a speedy end to the rebellion once a general attack under the personal direction of the president is launched.

MacNIDER CHARGES BONUS REPUDIATION

Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 18.—Hannford MacNider, of Mason City, Iowa, former national commander of the American Legion, in a letter to Representative William R. Green of Iowa, chairman of the house committee on ways and means, made public here, took the republican party to task for its "repudiation" of its pledge of adjusted compensation for veterans of the World war and warned that "there has been an immediate strong and most unfavorable reaction in Iowa" to President Coolidge's attitude on the bonus as revealed in his message to congress. "During President Harding's administration there had been an accepted understanding of his position in asking delay, but this statement of President Coolidge has created a great wave of resentment which does not augur well for its acceptance," the letter stated.

Proposed Law Governs Child Labor on Farms

Washington, Dec. 18.—Adoption of the proposed child labor amendment to the constitution in the interest of which are lined up practically all the organized men and women of the country, will make possible for the first time the application of federal standards to rural child labor, through the conclusion in the next national child labor laws of provisions fixing at least a minimum age and maximum hours of employment of children in the hard annual work of the farm.

Neither of the child labor laws passed by congress and found unconstitutional by the supreme court dealt at any point with employment of children in agricultural work, which has been regulated, so far as it has been regulated at all, by the various states.

TO VACCINATE SCHOOL CHILDREN

If Parents So Permit, Vaccinations Will Take Place at Various School Buildings

IS PERCAUTIONARY MEASURE

Work Done Absolutely Free of Charge, About 100 Have Already Signed Permits

Miss Eula Michael announces that school children whose parents so desire, will be vaccinated at the various school buildings in the city on Thursday and Friday of this week.

This is not done because of any threatened epidemic of smallpox, for the disease does not exist in the city, but is merely a precaution against such an epidemic, and is offered by the local board of education each year. The vaccination is done absolutely free of charge and it is thought that this opportunity will be grasped by many who have not as yet been vaccinated.

Notices have been sent to all children who have not received vaccination, together with permits which must be signed by the parents before the treatment will be given.

Miss Michael states that about one hundred have already signed these permits, and more are expected before Thursday. The vaccination will be done at the school building which the child may be attending.

This work is especially planned for children in the grades, but those in the high school are also eligible if they desire the treatment.

FOLLOWERS OF THE GLEAM

Held Regular Monthly Meeting at the Home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp

The Followers of the Gleam held their regular monthly meeting Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp. The subject for study was: "The Japanese Family System," from Chapter II. "The Woman and Leaven in Japan," the following program being carried out:

"Subjection of Women," Geneva Johnson.

"Ancestor Worship and Family Ties," Frances Corbett.

"Marriage a Social Obligation," Mrs. Slipp.

"How Parents Arrange the Marriage," Margaret Jones.

"Two Forms of Marriage Practice," Kathryn Carmichael.

"Christmas marriage: The story of M. San," Elizabeth Folsom.

"Story of a Sunday School Boy's Faith," Kathryn Albright.

Miss Robinson gave a very interesting account of the life of Dr. John De Forest, the distinguished pioneer missionary who with his wife was sent to Japan by the American Board, shortly after the opening of Japan's doors to America trade. Mrs. Charlotte De Forest, president of Kobe College and author of the study book, "The Woman and Leaven in Japan," is a daughter of Dr. John De Forest, and a missionary of the Woman Board of Missions of the Interior. Two new members were added to the society. The meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostess.

Bryan's "Dark Horse" Believed to Be Daniels

Washington, Dec. 18.—The "dark horse" from Dixie, who is being groomed by William Jennings Bryan for the democratic presidential nomination is believed to be former Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels of North Carolina. At least Mr. Daniels is the guest of several southern senators, who argue that the former secretary is about the only public man in the south who measures up to the Bryan standard, especially in the matter of prohibition. Of all the bone dries in America, none is more so than Mr. Daniels. Besides, Daniels and the commoner have been for years the closest of friends. Mr. Daniels' friends, however, are of the opinion that Mr. Daniels will not become a candidate even at the solicitation of his old friend, Mr. Bryan. The former secretary is believed to favor the candidacy of William G. McAdoo.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Function Given by Business and Professional Women Very Successful

The Christmas bazaar given by the Business & Professional Women's club on Saturday afternoon and evening was most successful, and the young women realized a satisfying amount from the sale of dolls, fancy work and candy, as well as from the serving of the shoppers' lunch.

The sandwich bread and doughnuts were donated by the Elektrik Maid bakery, and the members of the club wish to thank the manager of the bakery for thoughtfulness and courtesy, also others who aided the committee in making the affair a success. Much credit is due Miss Alta Franklin, chairman of the arrangement committee and her assistants.

SAILSTAD AND "SUNSHINE GIRL" THINKING IT OVER

(By United Press)
Superior, Wisconsin, Dec. 18.—E. J. Sailstad and his "sunshine girl" Dorothy Anderson brought back from Napa California will have a chance to rest and think things over for a time.

Robert Kennedy, prosecuting attorney said today he did not know when the two would be arraigned on charges of arson.

They were alleged to have confessed to digging up the body of Allen McFee and to have burned it in Sailstad's cottage on Lake Nebagamon in a hoax which permitted Sailstad's wife to collect about $35,000 insurance on his life.

The two fled to California and set up a love nest.

District Attorney Kennedy returned from Omaha today where he has been gathering evidence in the case. It is possible the two will be arraigned late today or tomorrow, but Kennedy does not wish to rush the case.

Mrs. Leona Sailstad-Richardson wife of the jailed man who has since married again, came here to watch proceedings and see her husband. Mrs. Augusta Sailstad, mother of the former Eau Claire manufacturer visited her son and the "sunshine girl" in jail. "I think she is a wonderful woman," smiled Dorothy.

Alton Sailstad, his younger brother, called at the jail with his best suit of clothes and gave it to his brother. Sailstad's was badly in need of cleaning and pressing after the trip from California.

"Gee, that is some sacrifice for anyone to make for me," said Sailstad.

"The Souldard Market" Study Won a Prize in St. Louis Exhibition

About forty-five pictures from the studio of Miss Mary A. McColl, of St. Louis, have arrived in the city, and are being shown privately at the home of John A. McColl, brother of Miss McColl. Groups of acquaintances are being asked to view the pictures at different hours, that all interested may see the pictures in a leisurely manner. All pictures bear numbers and lists are provided with corresponding numbers, giving the titles and, if for sale, the prices. However, some in the exhibition are not purchasable.

Sunday afternoon from three to six, and on the same evening from eight to eleven, quite a gathering were entertained by Miss Islay McColl, who was assisted in serving by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Johnstone. On Monday evening another group enjoyed the pictures, while Miss Alexandria White, of Lima, Ohio, served frappe and wafers in the dining room. The service was enhanced by pink roses in a crystal basket, lighted tapers in tall crystal glasses shedding a soft radiance over the linen-draped table.

Those who have seen the pictures pronounce them unusually attractive. Some are large, one very large, others fall into the class required for the Thumb-box Exhibition, held annually in St. Louis. One shown, "The Souldard Market," won a prize in this exhibition, as being one of three in the best group of pictures exhibited. A detailed review of the pictures shown in Brainerd will be given later. Several sales have been made, but the purchasers have kindly allowed the pictures to remain for a short time, that those interested may see the collection intact.

"SEVEN REPRESENTATIVE AMERICANS"

"STRENUOUS AMERICANS" is the title of a book newly issued by R. F. Dibble and reviewed under the five column head, "Seven Representative Americans," by the New York Times in its book review section.

And who are the "seven representative Americans?" Mark Hanna, Jesse James, Frances Willard, Admiral Dewey, P. T. Barnum, James J. Hill and Brigham Young. Jesse James was certainly strenuous enough, but the New York Times puts him into wonderful company by calling him a "representative American." In the words of Mr. Dibble the seven include "a capitalist-politician, a notorious fugitive, a social reformer, an outstanding military figure, a hilarious showman, an industrial magnate and a religious enthusiast," of whom Mr. Dibble observes that "each one was supreme in his particular field, during his day; each represents, better, perhaps, than any of his contemporaries in the same field, some distinctive and significant trait of his time."

Minnesota expressed its opinion in no uncertain manner when Mr. James sought to make away with Northfield's financial institutions.

"In a country that was rapidly becoming tame and civilized," writes the biographer, "James stood for everything baroque and barbaric; he was the personification of all that was wild, uncultured, savage and opposed to the trend of the times."

When Mr. Dibble dabbles in autobiography, why, may we ask, does he add Jesse James to a group of constructive Americans?

CARRYING DRAINAGE TOO FAR

DRAINAGE in the upper reaches of the Mississippi river can be carried too far. If the projects in drainage now contemplated are carried out, it will mean virtually the extinction of all warm water fishing along the upper Mississippi river within the next 10 years, says C. F. Culler of the United States Bureau of Fisheries.

This matter should be taken notice of by the 10,000 Lakes of Minnesota association, Fish and Game Protective League, State Game and Fish Commission, the Brainerd District of the 10,000 lakes, sportsmen generally.

The fish and game life in this state is one of its greatest assets in inducing the tourists to visit us. It stands to reason if you take away spawning and feeding grounds you destroy the reproduction of the species.

SEEKS EFFICIENCY

THE State Game and Fish Commission wants 150 salaried wardens throughout the year in order to efficiently patrol the state. At present Mr. Gould is allowed an average of only 40.

Their pay, as urged by Mr. Gould, should be $150 a month instead of $100 so that it will enable him to secure the best type of men fitted for the positions. The non-salaried warden system should be abandoned, said Mr. Gould, as it is entirely unsatisfactory.

The State Game and Fish Commission is one of the departments of the state which has really cost nothing in the way of appropriations, in fact the department pays into the state general fund moneys derived in various ways.

READING, THEY UNDERSTAND NOT

UNIVERSITY of California students are under a severe indictment by Prof. R. E. Parker. He says the average student does not know how to read. Check him up on the last paragraph read, and he can't tell you what it's about. They do not understand even the words they are reading.

The average vocabulary of this college student is about 500 words. This, in order to suffice, must be subject to quite a turnover.

AN illustrated article in Sunday's St. Paul Pioneer Press states that "Christmas finery now on display reveals the modern Eve reverting to the Garden of Eden for style novelties adapted from the Animal Kingdom." We always thought the Garden was distinguished for guileless simplicity in style or absolute disregard of style.

THE Oriental mind may be considered obtuse and reserved, but a sense of humor creeps in at times. China has gone over several reams of Japanese protests sent her and copied portions of them for delivery to Japan. The charge is made that a number of Chinese were killed in the riots subsequent to the Japanese earthquake.

AMERICA, which has become the dumping ground of the world's defective human material, needs to consider immigration as long time national investment in family stocks rather than short time investments in productive labor, as Dr. D. H. Laughlin says. A 3 per cent law should admit only those 100 per cent desirable.

NOTHING stands in the way of complete harmony at the next democratic national convention, says the National Republican, except some little differences of opinion as to prohibition, government ownership and the League of Nations.

THE Public Health Service has laid off tackling new fangled diseases and is now taking up the study of a common cold, and is endeavoring to ascertain its cause, distribution of spread, etc. The whole nation loses much valuable time with common colds.

IN France the opinion is held that love letters of great men should be preserved and published. In England they burn them up on receipt. In America the gentle art of love letter writing has faded away and the telephone carries Cupid's messages.

OFF the field, Pfann, Cornell's great quarterback, is phlegmatic, diffident, almost sleepy. But on the field he is high strung and aggressive, playing football instinctively. He probably reserves all his steam and energy when needed and builds up his reserve power when resting.

URGENT RELEASE OF 119 PRISONERS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 18.—Telegrams urging the release of 119 prisoners convicted for violation of the state criminal syndicalism laws were sent today by the General Defense committee to the governors of California, Idaho, Washington and Oklahoma. Some of these prisoners were wrongly convicted of murder in connection with labor disputes the committee charges.

Impetus to the fight for the release of the labor prisoners was given by the release of the political prisoners by President Coolidge.

Morris Gest Hopes to Be Always Broke; Says Poverty Breeds Art

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Morris Gest, the idealist impresario of European art and artists, has always been broke, is broke and hopes to be broke until the end of his days. So he declared in a suite at the Hotel Sherman while he waited for the rise of the curtain on the pet child of his producing genius, Ballet's Chauve Souris.

"Classicism is born from low wages," he declared. "America is doomed to imitation until an economic readjustment ceases to pay the manual laborer more than the artist and the professor. Americans will sacrifice their dollars, but not their patience. Therefore we have no great American art."

Some folks have asked us for detailed instructions on how to burn Consolidation Elkhorn Coal. At first we thought of an illustrated booklet describing the process in detail, but the directions are really so few that they would not fill a book. Here they are:

1. When adding new fuel to the fire, first pull the live coals to one side or back and place the new coal on the opposite side.
2. Very little draft from below but make sure the air slot in the fire door of the furnace is wide open so that plenty of air may reach the top of the fire.
3. Keep adding coal until the fire pit is about two-thirds full. Coke is quickly formed after which no smoke or soot is given off. Such a fire may be checked almost indefinitely.
4. The free burning characteristic of Consolidation Elkhorn is especially noticeable from this point and no more attention is required until new fuel is added.
5. Shake the grates very little.

In other words, put on Consolidation Elkhorn, admit plenty of air over the fire and it will take care of itself. No crusted lumps to break up, no clinkers, very little soot or smoke, and about a bushel of ash to the ton.

"SEVEN REPRESENTATIVE AMERICANS"

"STRENUOUS AMERICANS" is the title of a book newly issued by R. F. Dibble and reviewed under the five column head, "Seven Representative Americans," by the New York Times in its book review section.

And who are the "seven representative Americans?" Mark Hanna, Jesse James, Frances Willard, Admiral Dewey, P. T. Barnum, James J. Hill and Brigham Young. Jesse James was certainly strenuous enough, but the New York Times puts him into wonderful company by calling him a "representative American." In the words of Mr. Dibble the seven include "a capitalist-politician, a notorious fugitive, a social reformer, an outstanding military figure, a hilarious showman, an industrial magnate and a religious enthusiast," of whom Mr. Dibble observes that "each one was supreme in his particular field, during his day; each represents, better, perhaps, than any of his contemporaries in the same field, some distinctive and significant trait of his time."

Minnesota expressed its opinion in no uncertain manner when Mr. James sought to make away with Northfield's financial institutions.

"In a country that was rapidly becoming tame and civilized," writes the biographer, "James stood for everything baroque and barbaric; he was the personification of all that was wild, uncultured, savage and opposed to the trend of the times."

When Mr. Dibble dabbles in autobiography, why, may we ask, does he add Jesse James to a group of constructive Americans?

CARRYING DRAINAGE TOO FAR

DRAINAGE in the upper reaches of the Mississippi river can be carried too far. If the projects in drainage now contemplated are carried out, it will mean virtually the extinction of all warm water fishing along the upper Mississippi river within the next 10 years, says C. F. Culler of the United States Bureau of Fisheries.

This matter should be taken notice of by the 10,000 Lakes of Minnesota association, Fish and Game Protective League, State Game and Fish Commission, the Brainerd District of the 10,000 lakes, sportsmen generally.

The fish and game life in this state is one of its greatest assets in inducing the tourists to visit us. It stands to reason if you take away spawning and feeding grounds you destroy the reproduction of the species.

SEEKS EFFICIENCY

THE State Game and Fish Commission wants 150 salaried wardens throughout the year in order to efficiently patrol the state. At present Mr. Gould is allowed an average of only 40.

Their pay, as urged by Mr. Gould, should be $150 a month instead of $100 so that it will enable him to secure the best type of men fitted for the positions. The non-salaried warden system should be abandoned, said Mr. Gould, as it is entirely unsatisfactory.

The State Game and Fish Commission is one of the departments of the state which has really cost nothing in the way of appropriations, in fact the department pays into the state general fund moneys derived in various ways.

READING, THEY UNDERSTAND NOT

UNIVERSITY of California students are under a severe indictment by Prof. R. E. Parker. He says the average student does not know how to read. Check him up on the last paragraph read, and he can't tell you what it's about. They do not understand even the words they are reading.

The average vocabulary of this college student is about 500 words. This, in order to suffice, must be subject to quite a turnover.

AN illustrated article in Sunday's St. Paul Pioneer Press states that "Christmas finery now on display reveals the modern Eve reverting to the Garden of Eden for style novelties adapted from the Animal Kingdom." We always thought the Garden was distinguished for guileless simplicity in style or absolute disregard of style.

THE Oriental mind may be considered obtuse and reserved, but a sense of humor creeps in at times. China has gone over several reams of Japanese protests sent her and copied portions of them for delivery to Japan. The charge is made that a number of Chinese were killed in the riots subsequent to the Japanese earthquake.

AMERICA, which has become the dumping ground of the world's defective human material, needs to consider immigration as long time national investment in family stocks rather than short time investments in productive labor, as Dr. D. H. Laughlin says. A 3 per cent law should admit only those 100 per cent desirable.

NOTHING stands in the way of complete harmony at the next democratic national convention, says the National Republican, except some little differences of opinion as to prohibition, government ownership and the League of Nations.

THE Public Health Service has laid off tackling new fangled diseases and is now taking up the study of a common cold, and is endeavoring to ascertain its cause, distribution of spread, etc. The whole nation loses much valuable time with common colds.

IN France the opinion is held that love letters of great men should be preserved and published. In England they burn them up on receipt. In America the gentle art of love letter writing has faded away and the telephone carries Cupid's messages.

OFF the field, Pfann, Cornell's great quarterback, is phlegmatic, diffident, almost sleepy. But on the field he is high strung and aggressive, playing football instinctively. He probably reserves all his steam and energy when needed and builds up his reserve power when resting.

NEW WATER MAIN ACROSS THE RIVER

Will Connect West Brainerd With
City's Water System. Work
Started Monday

FLEXIBLE JOINTS ARE USED
Soundings Taken Revealed an Ideal
Spot for Crossing 100 Feet
South of Bridge

The work of laying the new water main across the Mississippi, to connect West Brainerd with the city's water system, was started on Monday, and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as weather conditions will permit.

The manner of laying this main on the bottom of the river is interesting. It is being accomplished with the aid of a large cedar raft and a crew of eight or ten men. Three or four lengths of pipe are joined together and lowered to the bottom. Every 48 feet a flexible joint is made, to take care of the irregularities in the river bed.

The pipe used in this water main is known as 8 inch "Class C" cast iron pipe, much heavier than that ordinarily used in laying mains. The connection on the east side of the river will be made just west of the county jail, probably next spring, at which time the west side connections will also be made.

Several soundings of the river were taken to find the best place for the crossing, and an ideal place for this work was located about 100 feet south of the Laurel street bridge. The river at this point is about 400 feet wide, it is said, and the bed has the fewest irregularities.

The work is being pushed just at this time, because of the fact that the river is at a very low water mark, in fact the lowest it has been in 50 years, it is claimed, thus making the work of laying the main much easier. There is only five feet of water in the deepest place along the path of the main. The pipe will be extended 25 feet into the bank on each side this winter.

It is expected that this work will be completed in three or four weeks, sooner if the present weather continues, and will cost approximately $2,500.

Bonds were voted for the extension of the water system to West Brainerd at the city election last spring. Taxpayers will rejoice to learn that these bonds voted have not been sold, and it is not the intention of the Water and Light Board to sell them.

This work will all be done out of the earnings of the board, according to the present plan, so that not one cent of the improvement will fall as a burden on the taxpayers. This consideration on the part of the water and light board will be much appreciated by citizens of the city, and the water extension to West Brainerd will fill a long felt want in that section.

Missionary Society

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Losey, North 4th street.

Mrs. Irma C. Hartley will address the class in connection with "Japan on the Upward Trail."

LIBRARY BOARD APPOINTMENTS

Mayor O'Brien Names F. W. Molgren
Mrs. W. W. Bane and Mrs.
D. M. Clark

CONCIL CONFIRMS THEM

Insurance on City Buildings Ordered
Increased $10,000, Referred to
Property Committee

At the regular meeting of the city council on Monday evening, a communication was read from the Mayor in regard to appointments on the Library Board. At the request of this board to appoint three members to fill the unexpired terms of George Bouck, appointed in May, 1919 for a term of six years, Mrs. Clarence Smiley and Rev. Fred Errington, appointed in May, 1921 for a term of six years, the following appointments were submitted by Mayor O'Brien:

F. W. Molgren, to fill the unexpired term of George Molgren, which will expire in May, 1925. Mrs. W. W. Bane, to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Clarence Smiley, which will expire in May, 1927.

The council confirmed all of these appointments.

Renaming Streets

The street committee made its report on the renaming of the streets in Northeast Brainerd, which was passed at the last meeting of the council. It was reported that street signs are now being made for installation at street intersections. The new system of naming the streets in that section of the city is to go into effect April 1st.

On motion duly carried, a one-year lease was ordered renewed with David Ebinger, consideration being $1. for 85 feet of land on First street, now known as League avenue in Northeast Brainerd belonging to the city.

Defective Sidewalk

A defective piece of sidewalk on Oak street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was referred to the street committee. That portion of the sidewalk on South Sixth street, in front of the Standard Oil Company's filling station, was referred to the police department with instructions to keep it cleared of snow during the winter. This piece of sidewalk is said to be very sloping and therefore dangerous to pedestrians when covered with snow. A number of bad falls have been reported there in past winters.

Tramp Room

It was reported that the "Tramp room" in the city jail is too cold for use, it being necessary with the present radiation to maintain too great a heat in the balance of the building to properly heat this room. On motion the radiators in the corridors on the second floor of the city hall were ordered exchanged for those in the tramp room, the matter being left in the hands of the city engineer.

Moving City Clerk's Office

George Cain, chairman of the property committee, made a report on the removal of the city clerk's office. In this report the committee moved that the present offices be left as they now are, and that the small room just east of that used by the clerk be converted into a vault.

On motion of Aldermen Ritari and Wesley it was ordered that the city clerk's office be moved upstairs. A roll call on this motion was taken with the following results: Ayes, Aldermen Peterson, C. H. Paine, Michael, Ritari and Wesley. Nays, Aldermen Cain, Holmstrom and Quastrom. The motion was declared carried and the change ordered to take effect April 1st.

On motion duly carried, the old fire wagon stored in the shed on the city property and the boiler owned by the city were ordered converted into a thaw rig for use next spring.

Insurance on City Buildings

On motion the property committee was instructed to look up the insurance on the various city buildings, as to amounts, rates, etc., and the city clerk was instructed to write to the General Inspection Bureau, St. Paul, for any suggestions it may have for the reduction of rates.

On motion the insurance on city buildings was ordered increased to the amount of ten thousand dollars additional insurance, and the matter put in the hands of Aldermen Cain, chairman of the property committee, to report at the next meeting.

Street Lighting Changes

The streets were ordered lighted from 3:30 in the morning until day-light, and from 5 p. m. until one o'clock in the morning. Also all lights were ordered turned on during the holidays until January 2nd. Secretary W. D. McKay was instructed to take care of this matter with the Power Co.

The report of the city engineer, in regard to curbing on South Sixth street was accepted and ordered placed on file.

Aiding Mayor to Detect Crime

On motion, $150 was ordered transferred from the general fund to the contingent fund, for use of the Mayor in the detection of crime.

The city clerk was requested to notify Alderman Witham, chairman of the poor committee, to hold a meeting of his committee at an early date, and to have Miss Eula Michael, city nurse, meet with this committee.

On motion the pay rolls for the first half of the month were allowed, and the council adjourned. All members were present with the exception of Aldermen R. H. Paine and C. H. Witham.

NEW WATER MAIN ACROSS THE RIVER

Will Connect West Brainerd With
City's Water System. Work
Started Monday

FLEXIBLE JOINTS ARE USED

Soundings Taken Revealed an Ideal
Spot for Crossing 100 Feet
South of Bridge

The work of laying the new water main across the Mississippi, to connect West Brainerd with the city's water system, was started on Monday, and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as weather conditions will permit.

The manner of laying this main on the bottom of the river is interesting. It is being accomplished with the aid of a large cedar raft and a crew of eight or ten men. Three or four lengths of pipe are joined together and lowered to the bottom. Every 48 feet a flexible joint is made, to take care of the irregularities in the river bed.

The pipe used in this water main is known as 8 inch "Class C" cast iron pipe, much heavier than that ordinarily used in laying mains. The connection on the east side of the river will be made just west of the county jail, probably next spring, at which time the west side connections will also be made.

Several soundings of the river were taken to find the best place for the crossing, and an ideal place for this work was located about 100 feet south of the Laurel street bridge. The river at this point is about 400 feet wide, it is said, and the bed has the fewest irregularities.

The work is being pushed just at this time, because of the fact that the river is at a very low water mark, in fact the lowest it has been in 50 years, it is claimed, thus making the work of laying the main much easier. There is only five feet of water in the deepest place along the path of the main. The pipe will be extended 25 feet into the bank on each side this winter.

It is expected that this work will be completed in three or four weeks, sooner if the present weather continues, and will cost approximately $2,500.

Bonds were voted for the extension of the water system to West Brainerd at the city election last spring. Taxpayers will rejoice to learn that these bonds voted have not been sold, and it is not the intention of the Water and Light Board to sell them.

This work will all be done out of the earnings of the board, according to the present plan, so that not one cent of the improvement will fall as a burden on the taxpayers. This consideration on the part of the water and light board will be much appreciated by citizens of the city, and the water extension to West Brainerd will fill a long felt want in that section.

Missionary Society

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Losey, North 4th street.

Mrs. Irma C. Hartley will address the class in connection with "Japan on the Upward Trail."

LIBRARY BOARD APPOINTMENTS

Mayor O'Brien Names F. W. Molgren
Mrs. W. W. Bane and Mrs.
D. M. Clark

COUNCIL CONFIRMS THEM

Insurance on City Buildings Ordered
Increased $10,000, Referred to
Property Committee

At the regular meeting of the city council on Monday evening, a communication was read from the Mayor in regard to appointments on the Library Board. At the request of this board to appoint three members to fill the unexpired terms of George Bouck, appointed in May, 1919 for a term of six years, Mrs. Clarence Smiley and Rev. Fred Errington, appointed in May, 1921 for a term of six years, the following appointments were submitted by Mayor O'Brien:

F. W. Molgren, to fill the unexpired term of George Molgren, which will expire in May, 1925. Mrs. W. W. Bane, to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Clarence Smiley, which will expire in May, 1927.

The council confirmed all of these appointments.

Renaming Streets

The street committee made its report on the renaming of the streets in Northeast Brainerd, which was passed at the last meeting of the council. It was reported that street signs are now being made for installation at street intersections. The new system of naming the streets in that section of the city is to go into effect April 1st.

On motion duly carried, a one-year lease was ordered renewed with David Ebinger, consideration being $1. for 85 feet of land on First street now known as League avenue in Northeast Brainerd belonging to the city.

Defective Sidewalk

A defective piece of sidewalk on Oak street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was referred to the street committee. That portion of the sidewalk on South Sixth street, in front of the Standard Oil Company's filling station, was referred to the police department with instructions to keep it cleared of snow during the winter. This piece of sidewalk is said to be very sloping and therefore dangerous to pedestrians when covered with snow. A number of bad falls have been reported there in past winters.

Tramp Room

It was reported that the "Tramp room" in the city jail is too cold for use, it being necessary with the present radiation to maintain too great a heat in the balance of the building to properly heat this room. On motion the radiators in the corridors on the second floor of the city hall were ordered exchanged for those in the tramp room, the matter being left in the hands of the city engineer.

Moving City Clerk's Office

George Cain, chairman of the property committee, made a report on the removal of the city clerk's office. In this report the committee moved that the present offices be left as they now are, and that the small room just east of that used by the clerk be converted into a vault.

On motion of Aldermen Ritari and Wesley it was ordered that the city clerk's office be moved upstairs. A roll call on this motion was taken with the following results: Ayes, Aldermen Peterson, C. H. Paine, Michael, Ritari and Wesley. Nays, Aldermen Cain, Holmstrom and Quannstrom. The motion was declared carried and the change ordered to take effect April 1st.

On motion duly carried, the old fire wagon stored in the shed on the city property and the boiler owned by the city were ordered converted into a thaw rig for use next spring.

Insurance on City Buildings

On motion the property committee was instructed to look up the insurance on the various city buildings, as to amounts, rates, etc., and the city clerk was instructed to write to the General Inspection Bureau, St. Paul, for any suggestions it may have for the reduction of rates.

On motion the insurance on city buildings was ordered increased to the amount of ten thousand dollars additional insurance, and the matter put in the hands of Alderman Cain, chairman of the property committee, to report at the next meeting.

Street Lighting Changes

The streets were ordered lighted from 3:30 in the morning until daylight, and from 5 p. m. until one o'clock in the morning. Also all lights were ordered turned on during the holidays until January 2nd. Secretary W. D. McKay was instructed to take care of this matter with the Power Co.

The report of the city engineer, in regard to curbing on South Sixth street was accepted and ordered placed on file.

Aiding Mayor to Detect Crime

On motion, $150 was ordered transferred from the general fund to the contingent fund for use of the Mayor in the detection of crime.

The city clerk was requested to notify Alderman Witham, chairman of the poor committee, to hold a meeting of his committee at an early date, and to have Miss Eula Michael, city nurse, meet with this committee.

On motion the pay rolls for the first half of the month were allowed, and the council adjourned. All members were present with the exception of Aldermen R. H. Paine and C. H. Witham.

FARRELL PICKS LEADING SECTIONAL 11'S

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 18.—With the usual late season upsets complicating the standing and with no way to officially decide the relative merits of the football teams that escaped defeat, the 1923 season ended, as other seasons have finished, in many arguments.

Only California in the Pacific Coast Conference and Nebraska in the Missouri Valley Conference were able to establish a title to their sectional championships.

Yale and Cornell were the two outstanding teams in the east; Michigan and Illinois finished in a tie for first place in the Western Conference, and a jury of sport writers had to be drawn to decide the championship of the south between Vanderbilt and Washington and Lee.

As long as post-season match games between surviving contenders for sectional championships are not looked upon with favor by the big universities, championships must be awarded on opinion only, and this opinion, for obvious reasons, can hardly be divorced from prejudice.

No Yale man will admit that Cornell had the best team in the east, since Cornell did not beat Yale, and no Cornell man will grant that Yale had a better team than Cornell for the same reasons.

Opinion among neutrals will be found to be divided almost in the same proportions. Perhaps that is one of the reasons why football is getting such a hold as a national sport.

Yale should be rated as the best team of the east, in our opinion, and as one of the very best teams of the year.

Yale beat more better teams than Cornell did. Cornell's schedule was, and has been for several years, a joke for a team that has been considered one of the best for several years.

It's Cornell's own business what kind of a schedule is arranged for the team, and as long as some of the more formidable teams of the east refuse to schedule games with Cornell on a "home-and-home" basis the right for Cornell to choose its own way through a season cannot be denied.

For the same reason, however, the right of critics to pass opinions on a team that rushes to the heights over a flock of setups cannot be denied.

Cornell could have forced the critics to swallow the raps about the sissy schedule if Cornell had walloped the rather weak Pennsylvania team in the last game of the season, but when Cornell was able to beat Penn by only one touchdown, the question arose: "What would have happened had Cornell played one good team?"

Yale did everything that could have been asked of a great football team. It showed gameness by coming twice from behind and snatching games that looked lost. It beat powerful teams, and in the Harvard game played on a field covered with water and ankle deep in mud, it showed class all over.

Yale is not only the best team of the east, but one of the best in the whole country.

The claims of Illinois and Michigan for the Western Conference championship must be weighed by observers who know more about and have seen more of the teams than the writer.

From distance, however, it would seem that Michigan did something really great in coming through the late games of the year with a team that had been reduced more than 50 per cent in strength by injuries to star players.

Illinois, however, won more games than Michigan, but as long as the conference members do not seem to be suffering with any agitation over the settlement of the championship question it might be out of place for an outsider to step in with any opinions.

The Pacific coast was not represented on the first two teams.

Some idea of the amount of the advance planning required for "The Covered Wagon" which begins an engagement at the New Park Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 26 and 27, can be gained from the fact that it was necessary to search nine Western States for location. The searchers went thru California, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico and Arizona. This was while the continuity was being prepared. Then men decided what was wanted from the descriptions in the book.

CHAMP'S IDLENESS STUMPS RICKARD

TEX CAN'T FIND ANY BATTLES TO KEEP HIS GARDEN ARENA BUSY

New York, Dec. 18.—Facing a famine in the fighter classes and an over abundance in the heavy divisions Tex Rickard admitted he was up against it in making up his boxing cards for the winter.

Joe Lynch, Mickey Walker and Benny Leonard will not fight and with the champions idle, competition has become slack in the bantam-weight and flyweight classes. Numerous heavyweights are on the waiting list but most of the cards, especially those in which Dempsey figures, are too big for indoor matches.

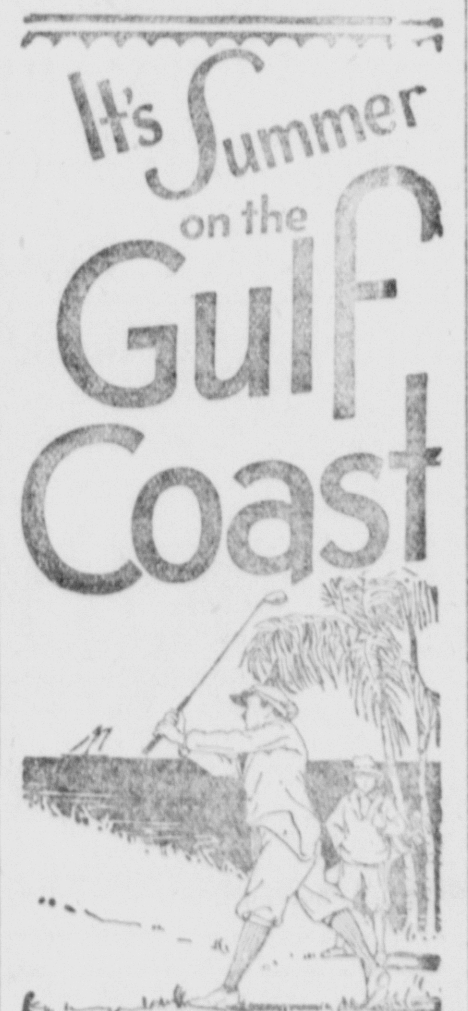

The light heavyweight class is all cluttered up. Mike McTigue, the champion, wants to fight but he will not allow Joe Jacobs, his former manager, to share in the profits. Georges Carpentier is due here in February looking for work and Tom Gibbons will be eligible in January.

Gibbons is now approaching the end of his vaudeville work and he is ready to sign for an attractive match that Rickard can arrange.

Battling Siki, the Senegalese, is also butting into the picture and complicating matters. Siki is a good card and Rickard wants to use him but none of the white cruisers want to take a chance with him.

Three good British middleweights—Roland Todd, the champion, Frank Moody and Ted Moore are here waiting for matches and they are all good cards. Rickard may offer one of them to the winner of the Greb-Johnson middleweight championship bout which is to be held January 18.

Before the Stars and Stripes.
The flag which the colonies all used before the Stars and Stripes was adopted was variously known as the congress colors, the grand union flag, and the first navy ensign. It consisted of 13 stripes, alternately red and white, typifying the 13 colonies, with a union bearing the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew combined—the national flag of Great Britain—signifying the mother country.

STADIUM PROFITS DOUBLE AT PENNSY

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—The financial report of the University of Pennsylvania athletic council for the academic year of 1922-1923 made public today, shows that during the first year of the new stadium the receipts were almost double the total for 1921-1922, the last year of the old field. The revenue for the first year of the new stadium was $577,724 with expenditures of $504,597. The net profits were $73,127. These figures do not include the football season just ended. It is understood that the receipts this fall were considerably in excess of those for 1922. Only three of the 19 sports earned a profit. They were football, track and basketball. The gridiron game earned a net profit of $183,263. Track due to the popularity of the relay carnival, earned a profit of $3,724. Basketball earned $649, the smallest profit this sport has turned in for many years.

The Keynote

ONLY that which is worth while can survive. The world has no place for a fifth wheel. Production is the keynote of this progressive age.

The mainspring in the affairs of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the production of service.

No word in the English language ever has been misused, so glibly, as the word "Service".

In the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) "Service" is interpreted exactly as Webster defines it—"The performance of labor for the benefit of another."

The job of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a dual one—manufacturing and marketing.

The Manufacturing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has developed a large number of primary products from the single base—crude petroleum; each one performing a useful and essential service.

Many of these primary products have been adapted to meet different conditions so that in reality this Company produces hundreds of products from a single base.

This we interpret as a major service.

The marketing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has built up a system of distribution so comprehensive that the man living at a cross road in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan or in the mountainous regions of Southwestern Missouri is as sure of a constant supply of Standard Oil products as is the man living in the city.

The farmer, harvesting his crops, can have Standard Oil Company (Indiana) products delivered to him in the field if he needs them.

The man who wants a quart of oil receives the same degree of painstaking attention as the man who buys a barrel.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not of the "fair weather" brand—it is sustained—it endures—it is big.

Service is what has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) big, and by the same token, it is bigness that has made Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service possible.

Not alone bigness as relates to size but bigness in vision; bigness in reducing vision to practical terms of usefulness for the lasting benefits of mankind and the world at large.

Tully Marshall in "The Covered Wagon"

Some idea of the amount of the advance planning required for "The Covered Wagon" which begins an engagement at the New Park Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 26 and 27, can be gained from the fact that it was necessary to search nine Western States for location. The searchers went thru California, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico and Arizona. This was while the continuity was being prepared. The men decided what was wanted from the descriptions in the book.

CHAMP'S IDLENESS STUMPS RICKARD

TEX CAN'T FIND ANY BATTLES TO KEEP HIS GARDEN ARENA BUSY

New York, Dec. 18.—Facing a famine in the lighter classes and an over abundance in the heavy divisions Tex Rickard admitted he was up against it in making up his boxing cards for the winter.

Joe Lynch, Mickey Walker and Benny Leonard will not fight and with the champions idle, competition has become slack in the bantam-weight and flyweight classes. Numerous heavyweights are on the waiting list but most of the cards, especially those in which Dempsey figures, are too big for indoor matches.

The light heavyweight class is all cluttered up. Mike McTigue, the champion, wants to fight but he will not allow Joe Jacobs, his former manager, to share in the profits. Georges Carpentier is due here in February looking for work and Tom Gibbons will be eligible in January.

Gibbons is now approaching the end of his vaudeville work and he is ready to sign for an attractive match that Rickard can arrange.

Battling Siki, the Senegalese, is also butting into the picture and complicating matters. Siki is a good card and Rickard wants to use him but none of the white cruisers want to take a chance with him.

Three good British middleweights—Roland Todd, the champion, Frank Moody and Ted Moore are here waiting for matches and they are all good cards. Rickard may offer one of them to the winner of the Greb-Johnson middleweight championship bout which is to be held January 18.

Before the Stars and Stripes. The flag which the colonies all used before the Stars and Stripes was adopted was variously known as the congress colors, the grand union flag, and the first navy ensign. It consisted of 13 stripes, alternately red and white, typifying the 13 colonies, with a union bearing the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew combined—the national flag of Great Britain—signifying the mother country.

NEARLY TIED BY W. H. FAWCETT

H. W. Maginnis won high honors in the weekly shoot at the Fort Snelling Traps, when he scored 50 successive breaks out of as many tries, in the regular event. William H. Fawcett, who was recently named manager of the American Olympic Trap shooting team, gave him a great race, breaking 49 out of 50 targets. Fred McKay topped the field in the handicap event when he defeated Boffending and Benz in a shootoff. Benz won the doubles shoot.

STADIUM PROFITS DOUBLE AT PENNSY

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—The financial report of the University of Pennsylvania athletic council for the academic year of 1922-1923 made public today, shows that during the first year of the new stadium the receipts were almost double the total for 1921-1922, the last year of the old field. The revenue for the first year of the new stadium was $577,724 with expenditures of $504,597. The net profits were $73,127. Those figures do not include the football season just ended. It is understood that the receipts this fall were considerably in excess of those for 1922. Only three of the 19 sports earned a profit. They were football, track and basketball. The gridiron game earned a net profit of $183,263. Track due to the popularity of the relay carnival, earned a profit of $3,724. Basketball earned $649, the smallest profit this sport has turned in for many years.

Referee Turns Back And the Fight Is On

Marseilles, France, Dec. 18.—During a football game for the championship of the province yesterday the referee left the grounds for a few minutes and the two teams rejoined of his restraining influence, started using their fists. The spectators soon joined the battle, which was only brought to a close by night-fall.

BEARDED BATTLER BUSTS BOXER ON BEEZER BRUTALLY

Los Angeles, Dec. 18.—"Fighting King David," bearded newsboy, whose religion bans hair cuts or shaves, surprised patrons of a boxing club here by knocking out his opponents in the second round of what was expected to be a playful "curtain raiser" Saturday.

The bearded boxer, who is a newsboy on week days and a preacher on Sunday, declares his whiskers are an aid in the ring since they cushion blows.

The preacher newsboy pugilist weighs 118 pounds and is more than 6 feet tall.

The Keynote

ONLY that which is worth while can survive. The world has no place for a fifth wheel. Production is the keynote of this progressive age.

The mainspring in the affairs of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the production of service.

No word in the English language ever has been misused, so glibly, as the word "Service".

In the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) "Service" is interpreted exactly as Webster defines it—"The performance of labor for the benefit of another."

The job of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a dual one—manufacturing and marketing.

The Manufacturing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has developed a large number of primary products from the single base—crude petroleum; each one performing a useful and essential service.

Many of these primary products have been adapted to meet different conditions so that in reality this Company produces hundreds of products from a single base.

This we interpret as a major service.

The marketing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has built up a system of distribution so comprehensive that the man living at a cross road in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan or in the mountainous regions of Southwestern Missouri is as sure of a constant supply of Standard Oil products as is the man living in the city.

The farmer, harvesting his crops, can have Standard Oil Company (Indiana) products delivered to him in the field if he needs them.

The man who wants a quart of oil receives the same degree of painstaking attention as the man who buys a barrel.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not of the "fair weather" brand—it is sustained—it endures—it is big.

Service is what has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) big, and by the same token, it is bigness that has made Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service possible.

Not alone bigness as relates to size but bigness in vision; bigness in reducing vision to practical terms of usefulness for the lasting benefits of mankind and the world at large.
